EXECUTING

1. Responsibility®

What Is Responsibility?

People with strong Responsibility talents take psychological ownership of anything they commit to, whether it is large or small, and they feel emotionally bound to follow it through to completion. They keep their promises and honor their commitments. They don't let people down, and they work very hard to fulfill all of their responsibilities and keep their word.

Why Your Responsibility Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Responsibility | Deliberative | Strategic | Relator | Achiever

By nature, you often argue that people should be held to the highest moral standards. You insist that those who break the law be required to accept the consequences of their deeds. You have little sympathy for people who are caught in the act of taking things that do not belong to them.

It's very likely that you are an individual performer who wants to be held accountable for your results. Why? You generally accomplish more when high expectations are established. You probably set these high expectations for yourself when no one else does.

Chances are good that you usually conduct one final check because you have a natural attention to detail and a desire to eliminate careless errors.

Because of your strengths, you find it difficult to extinguish your impulse to work hard. Your feelings of personal accountability mean you set few limits for yourself. Instead of watching the clock, you can completely lose track of time when immersed in simple or complex projects. Disregarding your official work schedule, you probably have stayed late or arrived early to finish your assignments. You always know you will somehow accomplish what you said you would do.

Instinctively, you typically check and double check your work. You need to ensure everything is in order. You likely adopt a serious-minded approach when evaluating the accuracy of reports, research results, evidence, data, or facts.

How Responsibility Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

RESPONSIBILITY + DELIBERATIVE

Life is serious, so you must be as well. Conscientious and vigilant, you honor your commitments and proceed with caution.

RESPONSIBILITY + STRATEGIC

Creatively conscientious, you are often aware of the multiplicity of ways in which you can provide service or help.

RESPONSIBILITY + RELATOR

The longer you serve customers, colleagues, or friends, the more you are likely to appreciate them, and the more they are likely to appreciate you.

RESPONSIBILITY + ACHIEVER

You get things done — sometimes because it feels so good and sometimes because you promised someone you would.

Apply Your Responsibility to Succeed

Be selective about what you agree to take on.

- ☐ Choose your commitments wisely and focus on the things you genuinely enjoy doing. Prioritize your tasks so they align with your passions so you can perform at your best without feeling stressed out.
- ☐ While you have a reputation for staying true to your commitments, be sure to carefully choose your tasks to protect your wellbeing.

EXECUTING

2. Deliberative®

What Is Deliberative?

People with strong Deliberative talents are careful and vigilant. Everything may seem in order, but beneath the surface, they sense many risks. Rather than avoiding these hazards, they draw them out into the open so they can identify, assess and ultimately reduce each risk. Thus, those with strong Deliberative talents bring a thorough and conscientious approach to making decisions. They take care to consider options, thinking through the pros and cons of each alternative. To them, making the correct choice is more important than the time it takes to do so. They see life as something of a minefield. Others may run through it recklessly if they so choose, but those with Deliberative talents take a different approach. They identify the dangers, weigh these risks' relative effect and then place their feet deliberately. They walk with care.

Why Your Deliberative Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Responsibility | Deliberative | Strategic | Relator | Achiever

It's very likely that you make a point of reinforcing favorable results. You accentuate the good you see in others. You provide people with concrete and specific details about what they do well. You help them build on their talents. This, you contend, contributes to their continued success.

Instinctively, you will not make reckless choices. While others may need immediate answers, you pause to take the time you need to make the best decisions.

Chances are good that you refuse to shirk your obligations. You are eager to fulfill your commitments. Often you are described as earnest. Your dependability is a hallmark of your personality.

Because of your strengths, you recognize someone's accomplishments, strengths, or progress only when you believe the person truly deserves recognition. You are more likely to applaud those who have gone above and beyond the call of duty. Simply meeting expectations is not enough to deserve a compliment, in your estimation.

Driven by your talents, you embody the proverb “Still waters run deep.” Quiet by nature, you give deep thought to many matters. Often you appear earnest and dignified to others. People benefit from your clear-sightedness as well as your sympathetic understanding and insights.

How Deliberative Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

DELIBERATIVE + RESPONSIBILITY

Life is serious, so you must be as well. Conscientious and vigilant, you honor your commitments and proceed with caution.

DELIBERATIVE + STRATEGIC

As you move toward a destination, you consider every possible route and anticipate every potential obstacle.

DELIBERATIVE + RELATOR

Trusting others takes some time for you because you trust only those you know well, and you are careful about who you get to know.

DELIBERATIVE + ACHIEVER

While you work with intensity and stamina, you don't want your work to be hurried. Doing things quickly can lead to poor results.

Apply Your Deliberative to Succeed

Take time to assess each situation — then act.

- ☐ Set aside time each day for yourself. Your thoughtful approach when considering options gives you the foresight to make wise decisions
- ☐ Think through the advantages and disadvantages when making important choices. To you, making the correct choice is more important than the time it takes to analyze the alternatives.

STRATEGIC THINKING

3. Strategic®

What Is Strategic?

People with strong Strategic talents can sort through the clutter to find the best route. You can't teach this skill. It is a distinct way of thinking — a unique perspective on the world at large. This outlook allows them to see patterns where others see complexity. Mindful of these patterns, they envision alternative scenarios, always asking, "What if this happened?" This recurring question helps them see, plan and prepare for future situations. They see a way when others assume there is no way. Armed with this strategy, they move forward.

Why Your Strategic Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Responsibility | Deliberative | Strategic | Relator | Achiever

Driven by your talents, you are quite adept — that is, talented, skilled, and knowledgeable — with language. You can express your ideas and feelings with ease. You typically rely on words or phrases your teammates readily understand.

Chances are good that you analyze the lessons of the past to find clues for handling future situations. Piecing together the causes and effects of historical events allows you to discover alternate routes to your goal. You are seldom taken by surprise. Why? You probably have studied your options and crafted innovative solutions.

By nature, you have noticed that people count on you to simplify things that are vague and abstract. This ability is most evident when people are struggling to grasp the meaning of intricate ideas, systems, problems, solutions, rules, procedures, contracts, or designs.

It's very likely that you are delighted to talk about large-scale concepts and theories as long as someone else initiates the discussion. You enjoy being a participant in the dialogue. However, you have little need to be the person who gets everyone talking.

Instinctively, you are known for making unintelligible or complex ideas, plans, procedures, or regulations easy to understand.

RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

4. Relator®

What Is Relator?

Relator talents describe a person's attitude toward their relationships. People with strong Relator talents are drawn to others they already know. They do not necessarily shy away from meeting new people — in fact, they may have other themes that cause them to enjoy the thrill of turning strangers into friends — but they do derive a great deal of pleasure and strength from being around their close friends. A person with strong Relator talents forms close relationships with people.

Why Your Relator Is Unique

Instinctively, you are frequently sought out by people whom you have gotten to know on an personal basis. They come back to you again and again because they trust your judgment. Many of them realize you tailor your words of wisdom to fit their unique needs, strengths, limitations, goals, or personalities.

Chances are good that you have a special place in your heart for the times you spend with good friends. Whether frequent or seldom, those interactions are when you build the memories that reinforce your long-lasting friendships and help them continue to grow.

Because of your strengths, you embody the adage: "If you want to get something done, ask a busy person." You deliver peak performances when you can tackle a task. You experience tremendous satisfaction each time you accomplish something. You probably like being held accountable for your actions and words.

EXECUTING

5. Achiever®

What Is Achiever?

Achievers have a constant need for attainment. They have an internal fire burning inside them. It pushes them to do and achieve more. People with strong Achiever talents feel as if every day starts at zero. By the end of the day, they must accomplish something meaningful to feel good about themselves. And "every day" means every single day: workdays, weekends, holidays and even vacations. If the day passes without some form of achievement, no matter how small, Achievers feel dissatisfied. After finishing a challenging project, they rarely seek with a reward of a rest or an easy assignment. While they appreciate recognition for past achievements, their motivation lies in striving toward the next goal on the horizon.

Why Your Achiever Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Responsibility | Deliberative | Strategic | Relator | Achiever

By nature, you may reduce a process, idea, plan, or event to its key components. Perhaps isolating all the pieces allows you to comprehend how something functions. Maybe you conduct a more thorough examination than many people do.

It's very likely that you normally launch projects with ease. You methodically identify pertinent facts and establish a step-by-step workflow. This probably is the way you prefer to reach desirable goals.

Chances are good that you possess a tremendous capacity for working long hours. Your mental and physical energy are seldom totally expended. However, the same cannot be said for everyone who attempts to match your pace. Your tireless efforts are typically directed toward the goals you plan to reach in the coming months, years, or decades.

Instinctively, you channel your energy into your work or studies. You seldom count the hours you work. Feeling fully engaged in what you do is a major source of satisfaction. You believe there is always something more challenging you can pursue. Given your ability to withstand hardship, adversity, and stress, it is no surprise you love what you do. You strive to do more and more of it each day.
